WAG Event Finals 2024

All local TTGF Competitive Members in USAG WAG Levels 1 – 10 will have an opportunity to qualify for Event Finals in their respective Level. Athletes will qualify with apparatus scores obtained during the qualifying competition on Saturday 25th May. Athletes will return on Sunday 26th June to compete in the Event Finals Session, on the apparatus for which they qualified. A gymnast may qualify for Event Finals on more than one piece of apparatus.

How It Works

At the end of each USAG Level of competition (Levels 1 – 10), the results for all competitors will be placed in descending order. The six (6) highest-ranked gymnasts on each apparatus, regardless of age, will be invited to move forward to the Event Finals on Sunday 26th May

USAG Levels 1 – 5 – an athlete must attain a minimum score of 9.0 on the apparatus during the qualifying session in order to qualify for Event Finals

USAG Levels 6 – 10 an athlete must attain a minimum score of 8.5 on the apparatus during the qualifying session in order to qualify for Event Finals.

The names of the qualifying gymnasts will be confirmed at the end of each Level of competition following each session. Level 1s will be confirmed after Session 3. This information will also be posted on the TTGF's Facebook page during the day on Saturday 25th May. The Club Heads will be responsible for communicating with their qualifying gymnasts and will confirm the gymnasts' acceptance of their Event Finals spot before leaving the competition venue on Saturday 25th May.

At the Event Finals session on Sunday 26th May, National Event Champions who place 1st, 2nd & 3rd on each apparatus, in each Level will be awarded.

Ties in the Event Finals will not be broken.
